

Thank you for selecting Aftermarket.com as your marketplace. To upload domains in bulk simply use the bulk upload spreadsheet. This may be found on the Add Domains page under Bulk Upload.

Select your selling style from the page tabs at the bottom of the sheet. Simply paste your domains into the proper fields and save your file. Once you have added all of your domains use the search box to locate the file and upload your domains.

We encourage you to read below to learn a bit about each of our listing styles and the information required for each listing.

Style	Domain Name	Category	Time Remaining	Current Price	Bids	Reserve	Buy Now	Watch
-------	-------------	----------	----------------	---------------	------	---------	---------	-------

Auction Listings | Listings run for a specified period of time and result in a sale to the highest bidder upon completion of the listing time. If you choose to set a Reserve price and it is met or exceeded, the listing will result in a sale. You may choose to specify a BuyNow price on your Auction listing. An offer at the Buy Now price will result in a sale and the immediate conclusion of your Auction listing.
